<td>Rs.20,000/-</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

If the license in not required, the same fee is leviable for the recommendation or approval from the Department of Commerce, Supply and Consumer Protection.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraphs 1 and 2 above, in the case of export of finished product produced from the imported goods, the Ministry of Industry, Commerce and Supplies may exempt such fees, also specifying the type, quantity and expiration date for such products.

4. There shall be no licensing fee for the raw materials to be imported under buy back agreement to export the goods constructed, produced, refined or changed in design partially or completely within Nepal to the concerned foreign individual or organization with importation of raw materials or subsidiary raw materials. The industry related to the goods being reexported after importation under such agreement shall be provided with bonded warehouse facility and facility to have raw materials or subsidiary raw materials used in production or refinement imported without payment.

5. Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3, no import licensing fee shall be levied upon importation up to five hundred US dollars.

6. Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3, the fees shall be levied as follows for the goods to be imported for the personal purpose:-

(a) The import license fee shall be Five thousand Rupees on the value more than five hundred US dollars of an import made by a foreign citizen or import by a Nepali citizen serving abroad, from up to forty percent of convertible foreign currency earned by him or her.

(b) For the purpose of clause (a) above, the following goods are hereby so specified that they can be imported only once a year for the personal purpose:-

1. Parts of motor or motorcycle up to five hundred US dollars,

2. One camera (movie, digital and video camera as well)

3. One projector

4. One sewing and knitting machine
(5) One set each of video deck, music system and other entertaining audio-visual materials and accessories thereof,

(6) One set computer (including printer, monitor, keyboard and laptop),

(7) One bicycle,

(8) One binocular,

(9) One musical equipment,

(10) One fishing rod,

(11) One life jacket,

(12) One safety cap,

(13) One rubber tree,

(14) One set each of fax machine, telephone, mobile set,

(15) Goods of household purpose valued up to five hundred US dollars,

(16) Books and electronic reading materials valued up to five hundred US dollars,

(17) In addition to the above-mentioned goods, the goods set forth in the Luggage and Baggage Order may be imported. However, the license is not required for the goods to be imported or exported by any passenger along with himself or herself for personal use as mentioned in the related Notice.
7. Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph 5 above, in importing goods by a Nepali citizen serving abroad pursuant to clause (a) of the said paragraph for the personal purpose, the value of which is more than forty percent of the convertible foreign currency earned by him or her or in importing goods valued more than that set forth in clause (b) of the said paragraph, the license fee shall be fifty percent of the value of the goods to be so imported in excess.

8. A person who imports goods for the personal purpose has to make an application and obtain the import license within six months of his or her return from the foreign country.

9. Except as provided otherwise in the notices issued by the Ministry of Industry, Commerce and Supplies in relation to export and import, in the case of those goods which may be imported on the basis of the license, letter of credit or against payment of convertible foreign currency through the approved banking system but such goods have been imported without license or letter of credit or payment of convertible foreign currency, the license fee shall be levied in an amount that is fifty percent of the value of such goods.

10. For amending any details set forth in the import license, the fee of one thousand rupees shall be charged.

11. Except the goods restricted for export or import in this Notice, any other goods may be exported or imported upon completion of the custom procedure. No order or decision of any body or official may so impose partial or full restriction on export or import of any goods as may, contrary to this Notice.
The following Notices are hereby repealed:

(a) Notice 2 of then Ministry of Commerce and Supplies, published in Part 5 of Nepal Gazette, Section 59, Number 28, dated 2066.7.16 (2 November 2009).

(b) Notice of then Ministry of Commerce and Supplies, published in Part 5 of Nepal Gazette, Section 63, Number 27, dated 2070.6.21 (7 October 2013).

By Order,
